What's In This Issue:
The December Meeting - Horizon Hobby - PRODUCT RECALL: Power Supply and 3S Li-Po DC Balance Charger Found In HobbyZone® Super Cub S RTF and BNF Products - Upcoming Events

The December Meeting

The December meeting was our annual dessert social. There were a lot of great desserts and snacks. There were also many 'war stories' shared regarding the events on and off the field during the past year.

Horizon Hobby - PRODUCT RECALL: Power Supply and 3S Li-Po DC Balance Charger Found In HobbyZone® Super Cub S RTF (HBZ8100) and BNF (HBZ8180) Products

Horizon Hobby has a .pdf of this notice on their Web site. It is dated December 8, 2014
http://www.hobbyzonerc.com/ProdInfo/Files/HBZ1003\_Recall\_Notice.pdf
From the notice - “Defect Issue: This product recall addresses a problem with the power supply and 3S Li-Po DC balance charger included in the Super Cub S RTF and BNF. There is a possibility that the power supply and charger could cause damage to products or start fires, which could result in injury. The affected power supplies and chargers are found exclusively in the HobbyZone Super Cub S RTF (HBZ8100) and BNF (HBZ8180) aircraft. Only power supplies and chargers without a green circular label are subject to this recall.

What To Do: Discontinue use of the power supply and charger immediately. Follow the steps below to identify and return the product to Horizon Hobby for a replacement charger.”

If you have this product, check the charger and power supply. See the Horizon Hobby Web site for complete details.
