Skymasters' Indoor Flying Starts Soon

From Fred Engleman

The Winds of November are approaching fast. Fear not, you can enjoy a full winter season of indoor flying at Ultimate Soccer Arenas beginning Tuesday, Nov. 4. There are 26 flying days this winter for a total of 57 hours of flying fun from November through March. Skymasters has reduced the cost of the Season Pass to $100. It's a great deal. How great you ask? It is $100 for 57 hours of flying time that comes to $1.75 per hour. Less per hour than a Starbucks coffee. That's a Great Deal. Soon we will have online registration available, I will keep you posted.
